

Candidates Ready Nominations Closed; Primary Sept. 19th

Yesterday Was the Last Day For Filing Nominations For Place on Official Primary Ballot

THE BOROUGH AND COUNTY NOMINEES

Yesterday was the last day for filing nomination papers for a place on the regular primary ballot and the following names of candidates were filed in the office of the County Commissioners.

The Republicans filed a complete ticket, naming candidates for all the offices to be filled, the only contest on being for Tax Collector where three different men have signified their willingness to separate Clearfield citizens from their hard earned taxes the coming four years.

The Democrats were shy of candidates in spots, while they had a healthy surplus in other spots. They will have contests for the office of burgess, Tax Collector and School Directors, while they failed to name Council candidates in both the Third and Fourth Wards.

There are three School Directors and eight Councilmen to elect this year. The School Directors are elected from the borough at large. The members whose terms expire this year are A. D. Bigler, Geo. B. Reed and Geo. M. Rosser, and they have all been renominated. The Councilmen are elected by Wards, as follows: First Ward, 3; Second Ward, 1; Third Ward, 1; Fourth Ward, 3.

The members of council who will retire this year are:

First Ward—J. F. Fletcher, A. J. Hagerty.

Second Ward—Allen Wrigley.

Third Ward—Leroy Boyce.

Fourth Ward—M. M. Overly, D. L. Heck and Leslie F. Hopfer.

Messrs. Fletcher and Hopfer are candidates for re-election.

Following are the nominations filed:

STATE HEALTH AUTHORITIES TO ASSIST

Dr. Dixon Asked to Test Court Plasters Taken From Woman Arrested at Osceola

SHE WILL BE HELD FOR TEST

The woman arrested at Osceola yesterday charged with selling alleged poison court plaster, was brought to jail on the 5:55 P. R. R. train last evening. When questioned by District Attorney Welch the woman insisted that she was really Elizabeth Black, of Mill Creek, Huntingdon, Pa., although a former Huntingdon Co. man interviewed the woman at the jail and said she apparently possessed but little knowledge of the town or its people.

The woman is being held on the technical charge of violating the ordinances of Osceola borough until a thorough investigation can be made.

The district attorney sent the stock of court plaster found on her to Dr. Samuel G. Dixon head of the state board of health, and asked that a thorough test of the suspected stuff be made. Further action in the case will be determined by the finding of the Harrisburg health authorities. If it is found the court plaster contains disease germs as feared the woman will be turned over to the federal authorities for prosecution, otherwise she will be released from custody when the report is received.

The woman operated in a few places in Clearfield before going to Philadelphia, she having disposed of some of her court plaster at McGarvey's meat market and Stover's grocery on Cherry street.

The woman also sold a package of court plaster to Harry McNeel at the Clearfield Electric company store on Third street. The envelope in which it was contained bore the following:

A Widow's Appeal

Being troubled with rheumatism and having one child depending on me for support, I am endeavoring to sell the enclosed article. Price 10 cents.

The plaster purports to have been made by A. W. Hubner & Co., 13 Chatham Square, N. Y. and is guaranteed by Hubner & Co. under the Food and Drugs act.

Making Fight for Big War Profits Tax

American Federation Joins In Proposition to Make War Profits Pay For War

Washington, Aug. 23.—The American Federation of Labor today joined the forces which favor conscription of wealth and death on war profits. Taxation for every person of wealth and war profits was advocated by President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor in statement to the United Press today. The movement started by Senators LaFollette and Johnson in the Senate has gained such headway that the opposing forces have organized to protect themselves. Following this conference Senator Simmons, in charge of the revenue bill, lodged an attack against those opposing the bill.

PICNICKED AT MINERAL SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Graham, of Philadelphia, Misses Caroline, Augusta and Annie Mitchell, Mrs. Clarence Mitchell, children Tom and Louise, Alice Beahan, Amelia Dimeling, Kathryn Etzweiler and Mrs. Lehman and daughter Dorothy motored to Mineral Springs last evening and enjoyed a delightful picnic supper.

HAD FOOT MASHED

Chester Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Cole, of Cemetery Road, got his foot caught in the turn table at the New York Central yards yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock and as a result is nursing a badly injured foot. The young man was taken to the office of Dr. Waterworth where his injuries were attended to and he was later conveyed to his home.

School for Soldiers Lesson No. 10

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and direction. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States army to which this course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 10 RECREATION IN CAMP

While your days in the cantonments will be spent chiefly in drilling and other forms of training you will have a considerable amount of time left free for your own use. Under some conditions permission may be given at times to leave the cantonment for short periods. However this is a matter to be regulated in each camp.

If you do go away from the camp on leave, you will continue to wear your uniform and will keep in mind always that you remain a soldier, subject to certain requirements that are not so definitely imposed on civilians. In meeting officers, whether in the camp or outside, you are expected always to treat them with proper courtesy and respect. You should remember also, even though you are not directly under supervision, to keep up your soldierly neatness and bearing.

Congress has provided that "it shall be unlawful to sell any intoxicating liquor, including beer ale, or wine, to any officer or member of the military forces while in uniform," an exception being made in a case of liquor required for medical purposes. Under authority of the same act it has also been ruled that alcoholic liquors shall not be sold within 5 miles of any military camp, an exception being made in case there is an incorporated city or town within that limit. It has further been provided that "the keeping or serving up of houses of ill fame, brothels, or bawdy houses within 5 miles of any military camp * * * is prohibited." All these provisions and restrictions are in the interest of every right-minded soldier. They go a long way toward insuring clean and healthful living conditions in the camps. They will help to make every soldier more efficient and better able to give a good account of himself.

One of the centers of army life in camp is the post exchange, at which articles for personal use, knickknacks, soft drinks, and so on, are sold. You will be safe in depending on the good quality and fair price of everything offered in the post exchange.

In general the matter of providing for recreation and personal comforts in the cantonments has been entrusted by the secretary of war to a small body of men known as the Commission on Training Camp Activities. The commission includes an army officer and representatives of organizations that have had much experience in meeting the needs of men of the type who will go into the National army. It will have the cooperation of the Young Men's Christian Association and the Knights of Columbus. Other associations may also work with the commission. This task of attending to the social needs of the soldiers has been organized with almost as much care and thoroughness as the bigger task of making ready for the firing line.

The Young Men's Christian association is building a hut for the men in each brigade. In these huts moving picture or vaudeville shows will be given every night. Writing materials can be had for the asking. A piano will be at hand. The Knights of Columbus will have one large building in each camp, in which there will be facilities of the same kind. Both these organizations will conduct religious services every Sunday. Men of all creeds will be welcome. The secretaries and other officers in charge will be glad at any time to talk over any personal problems and to help you in any way they can. They are picked because of their willingness and skill in rendering service. They will always make you welcome. Get in touch with either of these organizations as soon as you have opportunity after you reach camp. The chaplain attached to each regiment also looks after the spiritual and moral welfare of the men.

In every cantonment there will be a complete library building where you will be able to obtain books and magazines of all kinds. This is arranged with the help of the American Library Association. In each cantonment the commission on training camp activities is erecting a large auditorium. This is to

ORGANIZE BOYS OF STATE FOR WAR WORK

Want Twenty-three Thousand Patriotic Young Pennsylvanians To Enroll For Service

AGRICULTURAL HELP WANTED

Twenty-three thousand patriotic young Americans are wanted in the Pennsylvania division of the Boys' Working Reserve U. S. A., a national organization with State branches which aims to supply emergency workers for agricultural, industrial and commercial service during the continuance of the war.

The week beginning September 3 has been designated "Boys' Reserve enrolment week" by the Civilian Service and Labor Department of the Pennsylvania Committee of Public Safety which will conduct a campaign to enlist the desired quota of young workers. Boys and young men between the ages of 16 and 21 years are eligible for membership and through connection with the Reserve will aid the Government in its efforts to prosecute a successful war.

By national sanction, the Pennsylvania division has been placed under the control of the Public Safety Committee, with John C. Frazee, as State Director. Mr. Frazee and his associates planned the recruiting of the division as a recent conference in Washington, D. C., with William E. Hall, the National Director. District superintendents have been appointed throughout the state and they are preparing for a simultaneous recruiting drive in all counties.

The working plan of the organization calls for regular enlistment of boys, with the consent of their parents or guardians, for strictly non-military service of a temporary nature under proper and careful supervision, and at appropriate wage rates. The Civilian Service Department asserts that the need for such service, growing out of the great labor shortage in the country, due on one hand to the large withdrawal of men from their regular occupations and on the other hand to the present necessity of greatly increased agricultural and

Running For Office A Dangerous Game

Judging From Results A Man Has More Chance In The Trenches

Running for office in Clearfield county is getting to be an exceedingly precarious occupation, judging from the cripples and near cripples now in the race for the offices to be filled in November.

About the time the race started J. J. Heiges, one of the Republican candidates for Sheriff, was struck by an automobile at DuBois and suffered a fractured left leg. The day he made his announcement for District Attorney, John C. Arnold, of DuBois, had his right arm broken here in Clearfield when his Ford lucked on him when he went to crank it. Tuesday evening last Deputy Sheriff John S. Chaplin, and one of the aspirants for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff, was taken to the Clearfield hospital and operated upon for appendicitis.

The primary is almost one month distant and many things can happen in that time. To provide against possible contingencies all the candidates are increasing their accident insurance while preparing for the strenuous battle on the home stretch.

The accident record noted above shows that running for office in Clearfield county is a much more dangerous occupation than digging Kaiser Bill's "squire heads" out of the trenches of France, because statistics of the European war prove that only one man out of fifteen is killed or wounded at the battle front, while right here we have three out of twenty-nine candidates on the casualty list.

STATE BANKS TO REPORT

Harrisburg, Aug. 23.—Bank Commissioner Lefean today issued a call to all trust companies, banks and private banks for the standing of business as of August 21.

Battling Armies Res. After Big Offensive Past Three Days

Lull in Fighting on French and Italian Fronts while Getting Ready For Resumption.

FRENCH AND ITALIANS TAKE PRISONERS

(By United Press) London Aug. 23.—Lens is still the hottest point in the fighting on the British front today. Despite all resistance by the enemy the Canadians advanced their circling lines slightly southeast of the French coal city. "On the Ypres battle front east of Langemark enemy fire was repulsed. In the neighborhood of Lomartzyde the enemy raid was repulsed."

French Counting Gains. The number of prisoners taken by the French in their fighting in the past few days has reached 8,436 the official statement declared. Of this number 7,640 were wounded. 600 were hospital cases and there were 186 officers. Other gains by the French were 24 cannon and 200 machine guns.

The fighting has slackened. The official statement merely said "north of the Aisne the German artillery was most active through the night, especially at Baye and Hurtebise. On the left bank of the Meuse French artillery was very active during the night." The statement also reported the bombardment by the French artillery of Fribioeg and En Brigau over the aviation grounds at the station of Colmar.

Capturing Many Austrians

Rome, Aug. 23.—The Italian forces have captured 16,350 Austrians in their sweeping advance, the official statement declared today. Of this number 350 were officers. Several strong positions were carried.

Slight German Reforms

By John Granden Berlin, Aug. 23.—Berlin today took an important step in democratic reform as the result of Chancellor Michaelis's first appearance before the Reichstag main committee. The newspapers regard the Chancellor's concession in granting the committee permission to discuss the Papal peace note as of far more importance than the substance of the Chancellor's speech. The most of the chancellor's utterances were mere reiterations of previous outlines of Germany's position. Not only did the chancellor grant this concession but he likewise consented to the appointment of a subcommittee for discussing all secret questions. "Even if the Pope's action is otherwise without result, the Tageblatt today commented, it is giving the Main Committee more power than it hitherto had."

$2.00 Bituminous Price in Effect Anthracite Will Be Priced Soon

Simultaneously it was announced that the President will appoint a "copper dictator" to decide the purchase and distribution of copper products. It has not yet been decided (Continued on Page Two)

American Red Cross Very Active Studying Falling Birthrate in France

Deaths Exceeded Births Almost Three Quarters of Million During Year 1916

A group of specialists in infant welfare has been sent to France by the American Red Cross. At its head is Dr. William P. Lucas professor of pediatrics in the University of California, and originator of the "Save a Belgian Baby" movement.

Before the war the birthrate and deathrate in France were so nearly equal that publicists voiced their concern over the future of the national life. Last year, however, with the deathrate probably over 20 per 1000, not counting deaths of men in military service, the birthrate was officially estimated at only 8 per 1000. In New York state the birthrate is 23 or 24 per 1000, death rate about 14 per 1000.

The total deaths in France in 1916 were about 1,100,000. Birth numbered only 312,000. The net loss in population was 788,000, or nearly two per cent of the whole. In Paris, where 48,917 babies were born in the year ending August 1, 1914, only 26,179 were born in the second year of the war, ending August 1, 1916.

"There is a crying need for effective work among children," cables Major Grayson M. P. Murphy, head of the American Red Cross commission now in France. He reports that there is a great need for doctors and nurses for work with mothers and children, and the Infant Welfare Unit will be prepared to give such immediate relief as it can.

With Dr. Lucas in the unit, which was financed by Mrs. William Lowell Putnam of Boston, are Dr. J. Morris Simons, of the Yale Medical school, one of the best known of American obstetricians; Dr. Julius Parker Sedgwick, physiological lecturer, professor at the University of Minnesota; Dr. John C. Baldwin, specialist in diseases of children; Dr. Clain F. Gelston, Dr. Lucas's assistant at the University of California; Dr. N. O. Pence, another specialist and the following experts in sociology and child welfare work: Mrs. J. Morris Clemons, Mrs. William P. Lucas, Miss Elizabeth Ashe, and Miss Rosamond Gilders daughter of the poet.

These specialists will survey the situation and study the work already being done by the French, and will practice without receiving compensation from patients. The task before the Red Cross, which will be carried on by this and succeeding units, is not only to cooperate with French specialists but also to carry on a general educational campaign among French mothers in the interest of better prenatal hygiene and scientific feeding and care of the babies. Special efforts will be made to protect children from tubercular infection, which is particularly threatening France today as a result of trench warfare.

Liberal Forces Count on German Help In Coming Fall Election Campaign

Germans, Austrians, Pacifists and Slackers Will Line Up Against Conscription

(By United Press)

Ottawa, Canada, August 23.—To define Canadian political designations in American terms, the Liberal would be a Democrat in the United States. The Conservative would be a Republican. Party organizations are more rigid in Canada than they are now in the United States but in both the Liberal and Conservative parties there is the natural grouping of progressive and reactionary elements.

Both party organizations have been hard hit in the fight over the conscription issue which will culminate in the general election next fall. The anti-conscriptionist Liberal party (the "outs") under Laurier's leadership are going into the fight with the solid support of the province of Quebec. Quebec returns sixty five seats to the House of Commons. Conservatives concede that Laurier will control at least sixty of them. Quebec is the "solid south" of Canada.

There are 500,000 Germans and Austrians in Canada, chiefly located in western provinces. Public opinion is that this vote will be almost solidly Liberal. Along with this vote there will be what Conservatives call the "slacker vote" or the support of men who have not enlisted. This will be important without question. Laurier too has a certain advantage in that fact that over 3,000,000 of the most progressive and aggressive of Canada's men are in war duty in Europe. Their strength would be strongly pro-conscriptionist.

While Canadian soldiers can vote, previous efforts along that line have shown the difficulties of conducting an election along the fighting front are tremendous. But twenty per cent of the soldier vote of British Columbia was cast and counted in a recent provincial election.

It is upon these forces, the French-Canadian vote, the alien, the "slackers" and the "dyed in the wool" Liberal party man, that Sir Wilfrid bases his hopes of success.

On the Conservative side it is freely admitted that the outlook for success is not the brightest. Yet Borden has many sources of strength. He has behind him a far more united party than Laurier. He has the support of the British Liberal Party. Early in the campaign a proposal for a coalition government was proposed to Laurier but refused by him. Now there is very strong talk of a Unionist government made up of Conservatives and "Win the War" Liberals.

This is the line-up in Canada. They have brands of political hookum over there that have never been smoked on this side of the lakes and every pipe is going to be put to it, full blast.

OUR VOLUNTEER FORCES

According to the official bulletin of the Committee on Public Information on Saturday last, there are now 943,141 men in the volunteer armed forces of the United States. Since war was declared 1,300,000 men in round numbers have offered themselves. The forces are thus divided: In the land forces there are 55,541 officers and 654,483 enlisted men, a total of 710,024. In the sea forces there are 9040 officers and 224,077 enlisted men, a total of 233,117. Since war was declared the enlistments have been: For the naval forces, 121,514, and for the land forces, 327,345, giving a total of 448,859. The present enrolment of nearly a million fighting men is the best answer to the sneering belittlement of our ability to prosecute the war which Berlin industriously circulates. Uncle Sam has millions more where these stalwart Americans came from. To the officers' reserve corps from the training camps 27,341 officers have come. From other sources 10,500 have been added to the corps. This showing more than justifies all the labor of years on the part of General Leonard Wood and others in establishing training camps and maintaining them, often in the face of the most stubborn official opposition.

A JUST WAR PROFITS TAX

About the only sane thing Senator Robert Marion LaFollette, of Wisconsin, has stood for or advocated in the United States Senate since the trouble with Germany started is his proposal to take eighty per cent of all war profits to help America conduct her share of the war. What offer, project or proposition could be safer, saner or more sensibly to the point.

According to the 1916 statistics prepared at Washington and used by different United States Senators in their extended debate on the war tax bill, firms or establishments in this country engaged almost exclusively in manufacturing war materials or incidentals reaped net profits during last year of $482,102,745.

Just think of these figures, attempt to fasten them in your mind and get some idea of their magnitude. Why should not a big majority of these war-made profits be utilized to sustain this nation at war? The cream of American manhood is conscripted for this struggle with autocracy, and that being the case, should not any and every American concern be willing—and if unwilling be forced by due process of law—to give reasonably of their profits due to that war to the support of this American manhood and the sacred free institutions of our government.

Enormous war profits have been made by big corporations engaged in making war supplies. Below is shown the profits for twelve concerns in 1916. It is estimated the profits for this year will be much larger:

United States Steel Corporation—$207,945,593.
 Bethlehem Steel Corporation—$53,715,041.
 Anaconda Copper Mining Company—$39,087,187.
 Utah Copper Company—$32,174,480.
 American Smelting and Refining Co.—$11,158,084.
 E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co.—$76,581,729.
 General Chemical Company—$9,700,191.
 Central Leather Company—$12,016,397.
 American Sugar Refining Company—$4,211,408.
 Republic Iron and Steel Company—$11,687,863.
 Standard Oil Company of New York—$20,425,510.
 Corn Products Refining Company—$3,798,892.

Eighty per cent of the total of these enormous profits, based on the above figures would net the government the tidy sum of $384,682,196. And, remember also, that the above figures represent the earnings of but twelve of the principal concerns in the manufacture of war materials.

The war revenue bill will be unfair and incomplete if it does not include the eighty per cent war profits tax.

WOMEN SHOULD GET THE HABIT AS WELL AS MEN

Don't eat bite of breakfast until you drink glass of hot water

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the emoving inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "run-downs," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

SECOND NEGRO TO PAY THE DEATH PENALTY

Mobile, Ala., Aug. 23.—The execution of Albert Sanders, one of the negroes convicted of the murder of Mrs. Julia May Hess, is scheduled to take place in the county jail here at day-break tomorrow morning. All arrangements for the hanging were completed today by the sheriff and his assistants.

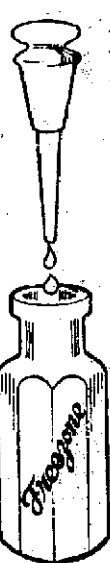

The crime for which Sanders is to be hanged, and for which Fisher Brooks, another negro, has already paid the death penalty, was committed early on the morning of May 21. Robbery apparently was the motive.

Mrs. Hess, the victim of the murder, was the wife of a locomotive engineer and resided at Fulton, Ala. The day previous to her death she started from her home to visit her mother at Jacksonville, Fla. It was necessary for her to change cars at Mobile. Arriving in this city in the early evening and finding that her train did not leave until after midnight, she took a taxicab and went to a hotel. Sanders was the driver of the taxicab. On arriving at the hotel Mrs. Hess told Sanders to return for her in time to take her to her train. The testimony at the trial indicated that Sanders picked up Brooks later in the evening and the two plotted to rob the woman, who had displayed a roll of bills before the chauffeur. At 1:30 in the morning Sanders called for Mrs. Hess at hotel and started with her for the train. That was the last time she was seen alive. Three days later her body was pulled out of a creek on the outskirts of the city with the throat cut.

Dick Kennard and Bud Gaulin have returned from Mahaffey where they have been working this summer.

High Heels Put Corns on Toes

Who cares? Corns or calluses lift off without any pain.

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heeled footwear, they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of freezezone applied directly upon a sore corn or tender callus gives quick relief and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts off without pain. Ask the drug store man for a tiny bottle of freezezone, which costs but a few cents, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

Freezone dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Women! Keep a tiny bottle of freezezone handy on the dresser and never let a corn ache twice.

Every woman can better do her bit by reading the home-canning department in

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

I wish that all the families in this vicinity understood as I do what this regular weekly department means—what it actually saves in food, money and time.

Farm folks are doing the big work at home these days. Farm women, by economizing and meeting present conditions, are real soldiers.

The Country Gentleman's home-canning department is like the rest of the paper. It is made up of ideas gathered from the most practical, experienced farmers—both men and women—in the country.

That's why The Country Gentleman is the national farm weekly—not restricted to a small locality.

I'm enthusiastic about it. I know what it will mean to you. I know that the one dollar you invest in a year's subscription—52 issues, one every week—will bring returns and pleasure you never dreamed of.

Send me a dollar bill or your check and I'll start The Country Gentleman your way at once. Your money back if I'm not right.

NEW STATE MILITIA TO BE FORMED IN NEAR FUTURE

Officers of Temporary Force May be Chosen from Guard Rejects

Harrisburg, Aug. 22.—As soon as the present draft is completed and the Adjutant General's department has completed its work in the formal drafting of the National guard into the Federal service and the transfer of state property to the federal government, the militia reserve authorized under the act of 1917, will be formed.

This provides for three regiments of infantry and one squadron of cavalry, and when the time comes to organize them they will probably be located in state owned armories.

Men who have proved their worth in the guard in past service but who were not accepted for Federal service, will be given the preference in selecting officers. The enlisted men largely of course, will have to come from those who are now subject to draft but who have, or will have obtained exemptions from federal service.

Although the national guard has been taken almost bodily into the federal service the corps and the administrative staff corps have not been mustered. The Adjutant General's department is at present busy transferring state property to the federal government, moving stores and similar work necessary in connection with mobilization. Adjutant General Stewart, nominally at least, is in charge of the registration and draft work in the state.

If all his work were wiped out because of the mustering of the guard into federal service, the office of adjutant general would still exist, because he is provided for by the constitution.

CODE FOR EXEMPTIONS LAID DOWN FOR BOARDS

Aid of Advocate General Clears Perplexities of Appeals Conference

Harrisburg, Aug. 22.—Advising the district draft appeal boards to abide by the rules and regulations laid down for their guidance by the government, and at the same time, when in doubt, to use their best judgment and common sense in the adjustment of cases before them, Major Charles E. Warren, of the Judge Advocate General's department, Washington, told the conference of the appeal boards that they must fully carry out all matters relating to the draft.

The conference tonight effected an organization at the capitol, after a long discussion of the operation of the appeal part of the draft system. Samuel T. Bodine, Philadelphia, was elected chairman; Taylor Allerdice, Pittsburgh vice chairman, and George B. Stevenson, Scranton, secretary. The presidents of the nine boards were chosen as an executive committee. The members of the boards will make arrangements for expenses of their work with the governor.

The conference was held in the Senate chamber, each of the nine boards being represented, some having all members present. Before Major Warren had finished he had answered several hundred questions bearing on draft appeals, many of them utterly irrelevant and either covered by the rules, or else pertaining to clerical matters not under his jurisdiction.

He told them that each district board was the court of appeals from the local boards. Any person aggrieved can make such appeal. All names will be certified to the district boards by each local board, as there is no argument to be held before local boards. Irrespective of what is placed before them, the district boards must decide all appeals. The rules as to industrial and agricultural exemptions come before the district boards only. Dependency cases are regulated by the rules. Only those coming under the rules are to be discharged. A man with a wife and child dependent is exempt. Major Warren laid special stress on the fact that the rules and regulations say who shall be exempt because of dependents, and then said that it was up to the district boards to decide all such cases.

In response to questions, he declared that if the parents of a husband or wife agree to support a drafted man's wife, she cannot make a claim of dependency. There is nothing in the rules to determine whether the parents are able and willing, and that point the boards must ascertain themselves. The local board is not bound to decide any case in any particular way, for there are no hard and fast rules. Dependency is the fact that must be established.

CURWENSVILLE

Help the Red Cross Committee in the way of sewing or knitting. Remember, while we are enjoying the many daily comforts let us not forget the boys who are soon to leave for the front.

Several families packed their baskets and enjoyed their supper at the Pee Wee's Nest Tuesday evening.

Miss Myrtle Shaffer is ill at her home near Ferncliff, with diphtheria.

Miss Inez Bloom is visiting in DuBois.

The exterior of the Patton School is greatly improved by the new concrete steps and walk at the main entrance on State street.

John Hedglin an dwife, who have been visiting his mother Mrs. Elizabeth Hergelin of Irvin Hill, returned to their home at Cadogan in Armstrong county on Monday.

Mrs. Richard Hanscom and daughter of Falls Creek are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gates.

The Curwensville Building and Loan Association at their annual meeting Monday night re-elected the following officers:

President—M. A. Caldwell.
Vice President—George Behner.
Secretary—John A. Dale.
Treasurer—Anthony Hile.
Solicitor—R. D. Swoope.
Auditors—Vernon Wall, Fred P. Robinson and Richard Lantz.

Directors—C. S. Russell, Arch Davidson, John P. Irvin, John Morgan, A. G. Woodward, Howard Crownover, J. A. Frank.

The reports of the officers showed the year just closed to have been one of the most prosperous in the history of the association.

Among those whose names were suggested for Burgess at the Republican caucus Monday night are: Present Burgess H. L. Caldwell, Webb Karstetter, A. Z. Wolf, Jr., and Frank Traister.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Durnetto at Naulton Tuesday, August 21st.

Mrs. Mary Albert, of Detroit, Mich., who was called here to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, the late George Phillips, left for her home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Bloom, of DuBois visited the former's brothers, F. P. Bloom and family and Dean and family at Ferncliff Tuesday.

Miss Helen Ogden was a Curwensville visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Catharin O'Dell, who has been visiting her son Harry O'Dell returned to her home in Mahaffey this afternoon.

A. G. Woodward transacted business in DuBois yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley McDowell, son Bryan, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Humphreys visited the former's mother near Bigler Sunday.

be used partly as a theater and partly for athletic instruction. Some of the best theatrical companies in the country will put on Broadway productions for your benefit. There performances will be free. A place will be provided for everyone.

Those men who like singing will have plenty of chances to enjoy "sing songs" on a big scale. The commission has secured the services of well-known chorus leaders to take charge of camp singing.

A great deal of attention has been given to athletics. An expert will give boxing lessons to large groups of men. This instruction is voluntary but it will be well worth your while to attend.

In some of the camps where bathing beaches are not far away instruction will be given in swimming.

Team athletics such as baseball, basketball, and football, will be developed under the guidance of expert coaches. One of the members of this commission will be in charge of this line of activity in all the camps.

Of course all these facilities are for your spare time only. They are not to interfere with the steady process of training which alone can make you a real soldier. However, you will enjoy your hours of recreation all the more because they have been preceded by hours of hard work. The recreation as well as the work has its place in the general plan for turning out an efficient army of self-reliant citizen soldiers in the quickest possible time.

G. A. R. REUNION

(By United Press)
Boston, Aug. 23.—Following a business session in Symphony Hall today, members of the G. A. R., here for the national reunion, were taken in automobiles to various places of interest in and about the city. Lexington, Concord and other historical towns were visited.

The general business of the reunion over, the veterans are taking the opportunity to go sightseeing. The shore resorts nearby are proving a strong attraction.

The 1918 encampment of the G. A. R. will take place at Portland, Ore. Orlando A. Somers, of Kokomo, Ind., was today elected commander in chief. Somers had no opposition.

FISKE-TORPEDO DEMONSTRATION

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Aug. 23.—War demonstrations will rival in interest in the contest for the world's speed title at the regatta of the American Power Boat Association on the Mississippi River which began here today.

Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, retired, inventor of the Fiske Torpedo, made his first public demonstration of his latest war engine, launching torpedoes from a seaplane skimming at full speed on the water. The launching device perfected for this demonstration has not been shown publicly. Four days racing and water sports are scheduled.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to flush Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it. Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and, sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

German War Profit Tax Fifty Per Cent

Chicago, Aug. 23.—Germany's conception of wealth was a success—as far as it went. This view was expressed here today by a competent authority—James W. Girard, former American ambassador to Germany. Girard declared that Germany's methods were fifty per cent of war profits. He declared, however, that this met the full war budget. The heaviest burden was supported by war loan of 80 billion marks. The government didn't give a darn what the labor party thought with regard to the conception of wealth. The German labor party has always been against war, he said. Germany's tax on incomes did not increase.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HEIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

CHARTER NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that application will be made in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County on Monday, September 24th, 1917 at 10 o'clock A. M. under the provisions of the Act of General Assembly entitled "An Act regulating the organization and incorporation of secret fraternal beneficial societies, orders or associations and protecting the rights of the members therein" approved April 6th, 1893 and its supplements, of an intended incorporation to be called THE LINCOLN SLAVONIC CLUB of Hawk Run, County of Clearfield and State of Pennsylvania, the charter and purpose of which is formed for the purpose of promoting social intercourse among the citizens of the United States of the Slavonic race and to educate them in the duties of good citizenship and encourage the Slavonic people to become American citizens, to speak, read and write the English language and promote a fraternal spirit among the members and to take care of the unfortunate among the said members by aiding and assisting them in time of sickness and for these purposes to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges conferred by said Act and the supplements thereto.

industrial production, will frequently be imperative.

It is intended, however, that the participation of the Reserve in such emergency work shall be so organized as not to retard the education of those boys who are attending school and not to prove a detriment to those who are regularly employed. Enrollment in the Reserve does not necessarily involve an immediate call to service. The motto of the Reserve is "I will be ready." Membership is open equally to employed and unemployed boys.

Boys who enroll are to be given instruction in the lines of work for which they seem to be best fitted and will be placed at such work. Every safeguard will be taken to prevent exploitation of this emergency labor and to protect the young workers against physical and moral injury.

Instructions have been issued to the District Superintendents for a vigorous recruiting effort in which posters provided by the Government and other forms of publicity will be utilized. Pennsylvania with one-twelfth of all available boy workers in the country, is the first of the big industrial states in the east to undertake organization of a Boys' Working Reserve.

Detailed plans for the operation and control of the Reserve are being formulated and will be announced later.

Candidates Ready Nominations Closed; Primary Sept. 19th

Yesterday Was the Last Day For Filing Nominations For Place on Official Primary Ballot

THE BOROUGH AND COUNTY NOMINEES

Yesterday was the last day for filing nomination papers for a place on the regular primary ballot and the following names of candidates were filed in the office of the County Commissioners.

The Republicans filed a complete ticket, naming candidates for all the offices to be filled, the only contest on being for Tax Collector where three different men have signified their willingness to separate Clearfield citizens from their hard earned taxes the coming four years.

The Democrats were shy of candidates in spots, while they had a healthy surplus in other spots. They will have contests for the office of burgess, Tax Collector and School Directors, while they failed to name Council candidates in both the Third and Fourth Wards.

There are three School Directors and eight Councilmen to elect this year. The School Directors are elected from the borough at large. The members whose terms expire this year are A. D. Bigler, Geo. B. Reed and Geo. M. Rosser, and they have all been renominated. The Councilmen are elected by Wards, as follows: First Ward, 3; Second Ward, 1; Third Ward, 1; Fourth Ward, 3.

The members of council who will retire this year are:

First Ward—J. F. Fletcher, A. J. Hagerty.

Second Ward—Allen Wrigley.

Third Ward—Leroy Boyce.

Fourth Ward—M. M. Overly, D. L. Heck and Leslie F. Hopfer.

Messrs. Fletcher and Hopfer are candidates for re-election.

Following are the nominations filed:

STATE HEALTH AUTHORITIES TO ASSIST

Dr. Dixon Asked to Test Court Plasters Taken From Woman Arrested at Osceola

SHE WILL BE HELD FOR TEST

The woman arrested at Osceola yesterday charged with selling alleged poison court plaster, was brought to jail on the 5:55 P. R. train last evening. When questioned by District Attorney Welch the woman insisted that she was really Elizabeth Black, of Mill Creek, Huntingdon, Pa., although a former Huntingdon Co. man interviewed the woman at the jail and said she apparently possessed but little knowledge of the town or its people.

The woman is being held on the technical charge of violating the ordinances of Osceola borough until a thorough investigation can be made.

The district attorney sent the stock of court plaster found on her to Dr. Samuel G. Dixon head of the state board of health, and asked that a thorough test of the suspected stuff be made. Further action in the case will be determined by the finding of the Harrisburg health authorities. If it is found the court plaster contains disease germs as feared the woman will be turned over to the federal authorities for prosecution, otherwise she will be released from custody when the report is received.

The woman operated in a few places in Clearfield before going to Philadelphia, she having disposed of some of her court plaster at McGarvey's meat market and Stover's grocery on Cherry street.

The woman also sold a package of court plaster to Harry McNeel at the Clearfield Electric company store on Third street. The envelope in which it was contained bore the following:

A Widow's Appeal

Being troubled with rheumatism and having one child depending on me for support, I am endeavoring to sell the enclosed article. Price 10 cents.

The plaster purports to have been made by A. W. Hubner & Co., 13 Chatham Square, N. Y. and is guaranteed by Hubner & Co. under the Food and Drugs act.

Making Fight for Big War Profits Tax

American Federation Joins In Proposition to Make War Profits Pay For War

Washington, Aug. 23.—The American Federation of Labor today joined the forces which favor conscription of wealth and death on war profits. Taxation for every person of wealth and war profits was advocated by President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor in statement to the United Press today. The movement started by Senators La Follette and Johnson in the Senate has gained such headway that the opposing forces have organized to protect themselves. Following this conference Senator Simmons, in charge of the revenue bill, lodged an attack against those opposing the bill.

School for Soldiers Lesson No. 10

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and direction. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States army to which this course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 10 RECREATION IN CAMP

While your days in the cantonments will be spent chiefly in drilling and other forms of training you will have a considerable amount of time left free for your own use. Under some conditions permission may be given at times to leave the cantonment for short periods. However this is a matter to be regulated in each camp.

If you do go away from the camp on leave, you will continue to wear your uniform and will keep in mind always that you remain a soldier, subject to certain requirements that are not so definitely imposed on civilians. In meeting officers, whether in the camp or outside, you are expected always to treat them with proper courtesy and respect. You should remember also, even though you are not directly under supervision, to keep up your soldierly neatness and bearing.

Congress has provided that "it shall be unlawful to sell any intoxicating liquor, including beer ale, or wine, to any officer or member of the military forces while in uniform," an exception being made in a case of liquor required for medical purposes. Under authority of the same act it has also been ruled that alcoholic liquors shall not be sold within 5 miles of any military camp, an exception being made in case there is an incorporated city or town within that limit. It has further been provided that "the keeping or serving up of houses of ill fame, brothels, or bawdy houses within 5 miles of any military camp * * * is prohibited." All these provisions and restrictions are in the interest of every right-minded soldier. They go a long way toward insuring clean and healthful living conditions in the camps. They will help to make every soldier more efficient and better able to give a good account of himself.

One of the centers of army life in camp is the post exchange, at which articles for personal use, knick-knacks, soft drinks, and so on, are sold. You will be safe in depending on the good quality and fair price of everything offered in the post exchange.

In general the matter of providing for recreation and personal comforts in the cantonments has been entrusted by the secretary of war to a small body of men known as the Commission on Training Camp Activities. The commission includes an army officer and representatives of organizations that have had much experience in meeting the needs of men of the type who will go into the National army. It will have the cooperation of the Young Men's Christian Association and the Knights of Columbus. Other associations may also work with the commission. This task of attending to the social needs of the soldiers has been organized with almost as much care and thoroughness as the bigger task of making ready for the firing line.

The Young Men's Christian association is building a hut for the men in each brigade. In these huts moving picture or vaudeville shows will be given every night. Writing materials can be had for the asking. A piano will be at hand. The Knights of Columbus will have one large building in each camp, in which there will be facilities of the same kind.

Both these organizations will conduct religious services every Sunday. Men of all creeds will be welcome. The secretaries and other officers in charge will be glad at any time to talk over any personal problems and to help you in any way they can. They are picked because of their willingness and skill in rendering service. They will always make you welcome. Get in touch with either of these organizations as soon as you have opportunity after you reach camp. The chaplain attached to each regiment also looks after the spiritual and moral welfare of the men.

In every cantonment there will be a complete library building where you will be able to obtain books and magazines of all kinds. This is arranged with the help of the American Library Association.

In each cantonment the commission on training camp activities is erecting a large auditorium. This is to (Continued From Page Three)

ORGANIZE BOYS OF STATE FOR WAR WORK

Want Twenty-three Thousand Patriotic Young Pennsylvanians To Enroll For Service

AGRICULTURAL HELP WANTED

Twenty-three thousand patriotic young Americans are wanted in the Pennsylvania division of the Boys' Working Reserve U. S. A., a national organization with State branches which aims to supply emergency workers for agricultural, industrial and commercial service during the continuance of the war.

The week beginning September 3 has been designated "Boys' Reserve enrolment week" by the Civilian Service and Labor Department of the Pennsylvania Committee of Public Safety which will conduct a campaign to enlist the desired quota of young workers. Boys and young men between the ages of 16 and 21 years are eligible for membership and through connection with the Reserve will aid the Government in its efforts to prosecute a successful war.

By national sanction, the Pennsylvania division has been placed under the control of the Public Safety Committee, with John C. Frazee, as State Director. Mr. Frazee and his associates planned the recruiting of the division as a recent conference in Washington, D. C., with William E. Hall, the National Director. District superintendents have been appointed throughout the state and they are preparing for a simultaneous recruiting drive in all counties.

The working plan of the organization calls for regular enlistment of boys, with the consent of their parents or guardians, for strictly non-military service of a temporary nature under proper and careful supervision, and at appropriate wage rates. The Civilian Service Department asserts that the need for such service, growing out of the great labor shortage in the country, due on one hand to the large withdrawal of men from their regular occupations and on the other hand to the present necessity of greatly increased agricultural and (Continued on page four)

Running For Office A Dangerous Game

Judging From Results A Man Has More Chance In The Trenches

Running for office in Clearfield county is getting to be an exceedingly precarious occupation, judging from the cripples and near cripples now in the race for the offices to be filled in November.

About the time the race started J. J. Heiges, one of the Republican candidates for Sheriff, was struck by an automobile at DuBois and suffered a fractured left leg. The day he made his announcement for District Attorney, John C. Arnold, of DuBois, had his right arm broken here in Clearfield when his Ford lucked on him when he went to crank it. Tuesday evening last Deputy Sheriff John S. Chaplin, and one of the aspirants for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff, was taken to the Clearfield hospital and operated upon for appendicitis.

The primary is almost one month distant and many things can happen in that time. To provide against possible contingencies all the candidates are increasing their accident insurance while preparing for the strenuous battle on the home stretch.

The accident record noted above shows that running for office in Clearfield county is a much more dangerous occupation than digging Kaiser Bill's "squire heads" out of the trenches of France, because statistics of the European war prove that only one man out of fifteen is killed or wounded at the battle front, while right here we have three out of twenty-nine candidates on the casualty list.

Battling Armies Res. After Big Offensive Past Three Days

Lull in Fighting on French and Italian Fronts while Getting Ready For Resumption.

FRENCH AND ITALIANS TAKE PRISONERS

(By United Press) London Aug. 23.—Lens is still the hottest point in the fighting on the British front today. Despite all resistance by the enemy the Canadians advanced their circling lines slightly southeast of the French coal city. "On the Ypres battle front east of Langemark enemy fire was repulsed. In the neighborhood of Lomartzyde the enemy raid was repulsed."

French Counting Gains. The number of prisoners taken by the French in their fighting in the past few days has reached 8,436 the official statement declared. Of this number 7,640 were wounded. 600 were hospital cases and there were 186 officers. Other gains by the French were 24 cannon and 200 machine guns.

The fighting has slackened. The official statement merely said "north of the Aisne the German artillery was most active through the night, especially at Baye and Hurtebise. On the left bank of the Meuse French artillery was very active during the night." The statement also reported the bombardment by the French artillery of Fribioeg and En Brigan over the aviation grounds at the station of Colmar.

Capturing Many Austrians. Rome, Aug. 23.—The Italian forces have captured 16,350 Austrians in their sweeping advance, the official statement declared today. Of this number 350 were officers. Several strong positions were carried.

Slight German Reforms

By John Granden Berlin, Aug. 23.—Berlin today took an important step in democratic reform as the result of Chancellor Michaelis's first appearance before the Reichstag main committee. The newspapers regard the Chancellor's concession in granting the committee permission to discuss the Papal peace note as of far more importance than the substance of the Chancellor's speech. The most of the chancellor's utterances were mere reiterations of previous outlines of Germany's position. Not only did the chancellor grant this concession but he likewise consented to the appointment of a subcommittee for discussing all secret questions. "Even if the Pope's action is otherwise without result, the Tageblatt today commented, it is giving the Main Committee more power than it hitherto had."

$2.00 Bituminous Price in Effect Anthracite Will Be Priced Soon

American Red Cross Very Active Studying Falling Birthrate in France

Deaths Exceeded Births Almost Three Quarters of Million During Year 1916

A group of specialists in infant welfare has been sent to France by the American Red Cross. At its head is Dr. William P. Lucas professor of pediatrics in the University of California, and originator of the "Save a Belgian Baby" movement.

Before the war the birthrate and deathrate in France were so nearly equal that publicists voiced their concern over the future of the national life. Last year, however, with the deathrate probably over 20 per 1000, not counting deaths of men in military service, the birthrate was officially estimated at only 8 per 1000. In New York state the birthrate is 23 or 24 per 1000, death rate about 14 per 1000.

The total deaths in France in 1916 were about 1,100,000. Birth numbered only 312,000. The net loss in population was 788,000, or nearly two per cent of the whole. In Paris, where 48,917 babies were born in the year ending August 1, 1914, only 26,179 were born in the second year of the war, ending August 1, 1916.

"There is a crying need for effective work among children," cables Major Grayson M. P. Murphy, head of the American Red Cross commission now in France. He reports that there is a great need for doctors and nurses for work with mothers and children, and the Infant Welfare Unit will be prepared to give such immediate relief as it can.

With Dr. Lucas in the unit, which was financed by Mrs. William Lowell Putnam of Boston, are Dr. J. Morris Simons, of the Yale Medical school, one of the best known of American obstetricians; Dr. Julius Parker Sedgwick, physiological lecturer, professor at the University of Minnesota; Dr. John C. Baldwin, specialist in diseases of children; Dr. Clain F. Gelston, Dr. Lucas's assistant at the University of California; Dr. N. O. Pence, another specialist and the following experts in sociology and child welfare work: Mrs. J. Morris Clemons, Mrs. William P. Lucas, Miss Elizabeth Ashe, and Miss Rosamond Gilders daughter of the poet.

These specialists will survey the situation and study the work already being done by the French, and will practice without receiving compensation from patients. The task before the Red Cross, which will be carried on by this and succeeding units, is not only to cooperate with French specialists but also to carry on a general educational campaign among French mothers in the interest of better prenatal hygiene and scientific feeding and care of the babies. Special efforts will be made to protect children from tubercular infection, which is particularly threatening France today as a result of trench warfare.

Liberal Forces Count on German Help In Coming Fall Election Campaign

Germans, Austrians, Pacifists and Slackers Will Line Up Against Conscription

(By United Press)

Ottawa, Canada, August 23.—To define Canadian political designations in American terms, the Liberal would be a Democrat in the United States. The Conservative would be a Republican. Party organizations are more rigid in Canada than they are now in the United States but in both the Liberal and Conservative parties there is the natural grouping of progressive and reactionary elements.

Both party organizations have been hard hit in the fight over the conscription issue which will culminate in the general election next fall. The anti-conscriptionist Liberal party (the "outs") under Laurier's leadership are going into the fight with the solid support of the province of Quebec. Quebec returns sixty five seats to the House of Commons. Conservatives concede that Laurier will control at least sixty of them. Quebec is the "solid south" of Canada.

There are 500,000 Germans and Austrians in Canada, chiefly located in western provinces. Public opinion is that this vote will be almost solidly Liberal. Along with this vote there will be what Conservatives call the "slacker vote" or the support of men who have not enlisted. This will be important without question. Laurier too has a certain advantage in that fact that over 3,000,000 of the most progressive and aggressive of Canada's men are in war duty in Europe. Their strength would be strongly pro-conscriptionist.

While Canadian soldiers can vote, previous efforts along that line have shown the difficulties of conducting an election along the fighting front are tremendous. But twenty per cent of the soldier vote of British Columbia was cast and counted in a recent provincial election.

It is upon these forces, the French-Canadian vote, the alien, the "slackers" and the "dyed in the wool" Liberal party man, that Sir Wilfrid bases his hopes of success.

On the Conservative side it is freely admitted that the outlook for success is not the brightest. Yet Borden has many sources of strength. He has behind him a far more united party than Laurier. He has the support of the British Liberal Party. Early in the campaign a proposal for a coalition government was proposed to Laurier but refused by him. Now there is very strong talk of a Unionist government made up of Conservatives and "Win the War" Liberals.

This is the line-up in Canada. They have brands of political hookum over there that have never been smoked on this side of the lakes and every pipe is going to be put to it, full blast.

OUR VOLUNTEER FORCES

According to the official bulletin of the Committee on Public Information on Saturday last, there are now 943,141 men in the volunteer armed forces of the United States. Since war was declared 1,300,000 men in round numbers have offered themselves. The forces are thus divided: In the land forces there are 55,541 officers and 654,483 enlisted men, a total of 710,024. In the sea forces there are 9040 officers and 224,077 enlisted men, a total of 233,117. Since war was declared the enlistments have been: For the naval forces, 121,514, and for the land forces, 327,345, giving a total of 448,859. The present enrolment of nearly a million fighting men is the best answer to the sneering belittlement of our ability to prosecute the war which Berlin industriously circulates. Uncle Sam has millions more where these stalwart Americans came from. To the officers' reserve corps from the training camps 27,341 officers have come. From other sources 10,500 have been added to the corps. This showing more than justifies all the labor of years on the part of General Leonard Wood and others in establishing training camps and maintaining them, often in the face of the most stubborn official opposition.

A JUST WAR PROFITS TAX

About the only sane thing Senator Robert Marion LaFollette, of Wisconsin, has stood for or advocated in the United States Senate since the trouble with Germany started is his proposal to take eighty per cent of all war profits to help America conduct her share of the war. What offer, project or proposition could be safer, saner or more sensibly to the point.

According to the 1916 statistics prepared at Washington and used by different United States Senators in their extended debate on the war tax bill, firms or establishments in this country engaged almost exclusively in manufacturing war materials or incidentals reaped net profits during last year of $482,102,745.

Just think of these figures, attempt to fasten them in your mind and get some idea of their magnitude. Why should not a big majority of these war-made profits be utilized to sustain this nation at war? The cream of American manhood is conscripted for this struggle with autocracy, and that being the case, should not any and every American concern be willing—and if unwilling be forced by due process of law—to give reasonably of their profits due to that war to the support of this American manhood and the sacred free institutions of our government.

Enormous war profits have been made by big corporations engaged in making war supplies. Below is shown the profits for twelve concerns in 1916. It is estimated the profits for this year will be much larger:

United States Steel Corporation—$207,945,593.
 Bethlehem Steel Corporation—$53,715,041.
 Anaconda Copper Mining Company—$39,087,187.
 Utah Copper Company—$32,174,480.
 American Smelting and Refining Co.—$11,158,084.
 E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co.—$76,581,729.
 General Chemical Company—$9,700,191.
 Central Leather Company—$12,016,397.
 American Sugar Refining Company—$4,211,408.
 Republic Iron and Steel Company—$11,687,863.
 Standard Oil Company of New York—$20,425,510.
 Corn Products Refining Company—$3,798,892.

Eighty per cent of the total of these enormous profits, based on the above figures would net the government the tidy sum of $384,682,196. And, remember also, that the above figures represent the earnings of but twelve of the principal concerns in the manufacture of war materials.

The war revenue bill will be unfair and incomplete if it does not include the eighty per cent war profits tax.

WOMEN SHOULD GET THE HABIT AS WELL AS MEN

Don't eat bite of breakfast until you drink glass of hot water

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the emulsion inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "run-downs," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

SECOND NEGRO TO PAY THE DEATH PENALTY

Mobile, Ala., Aug. 23.—The execution of Albert Sanders, one of the negroes convicted of the murder of Mrs. Julia May Hess, is scheduled to take place in the county jail here at day-break tomorrow morning. All arrangements for the hanging were completed today by the sheriff and his assistants.

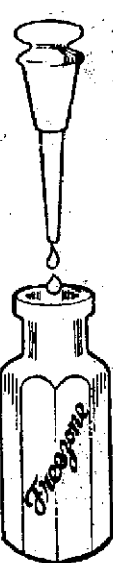

The crime for which Sanders is to be hanged, and for which Fisher Brooks, another negro, has already paid the death penalty, was committed early on the morning of May 21. Robbery apparently was the motive.

Mrs. Hess, the victim of the murder, was the wife of a locomotive engineer and resided at Fulton, Ala. The day previous to her death she started from her home to visit her mother at Jacksonville, Fla. It was necessary for her to change cars at Mobile. Arriving in this city in the early evening and finding that her train did not leave until after midnight, she took a taxicab and went to a hotel. Sanders was the driver of the taxicab. On arriving at the hotel Mrs. Hess told Sanders to return for her in time to take her to her train. The testimony at the trial indicated that Sanders picked up Brooks later in the evening and the two plotted to rob the woman, who had displayed a roll of bills before the chauffeur. At 1:30 in the morning Sanders called for Mrs. Hess at hotel and started with her for the train. That was the last time she was seen alive. Three days later her body was pulled out of a creek on the outskirts of the city with the throat cut.

Dick Kennard and Bud Gaulin have returned from Mahaffey where they have been working this summer.

High Heels Put Corns on Toes

Who cares? Corns or calluses lift off without any pain.

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heeled footwear, they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of Frezone applied directly upon a sore corn or tender callus gives quick relief and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts off without pain. Ask the drug store man for a tiny bottle of Frezone, which costs but a few cents, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

Frezone dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Women! Keep a tiny bottle of Frezone handy on the dresser and never let a corn ache twice.

Every woman can better do her bit by reading the home-canning department in

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

I wish that all the families in this vicinity understood as I do what this regular weekly department means—what it actually saves in food, money and time.

Farm folks are doing the big work at home these days. Farm women, by economizing and meeting present conditions, are real soldiers.

The Country Gentleman's home-canning department is like the rest of the paper. It is made up of ideas gathered from the most practical, experienced farmers—both men and women—in the country.

That's why The Country Gentleman is the national farm weekly—not restricted to a small locality.

I'm enthusiastic about it. I know what it will mean to you. I know that the one dollar you invest in a year's subscription—52 issues, one every week—will bring returns and pleasure you never dreamed of.

Send me a dollar bill or your check and I'll start The Country Gentleman your way at once. Your money back if I'm not right.

A Roof Covered With Watco Roofing Is Permanently Roofed

When you use this Watco roofing you are taking out an insurance policy that you are bound to realize on.

Made as it is of solid fabric ground with a pure asphalt covering and having thereon finely ground slate it will stand the summer suns and winter snows—even heavy hail storms seem to have no effect on its wearing qualities.

WATCO Roofing is non-curling, heat and cold resisting, won't crack—you can bend such samples as we have nearly double and even the finely ground slate wont drop off.

Our present stock comes in two colors, red and green.

Won't you come in and let us show you?

Music by the Famous Wurlitzer Motion Picture Orchestra

Alex Patton entertained at dinner last evening at his home "Terrace Villa" in Curwensville in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson, Jr. At half after six an elaborate dinner was served to twenty two guests.

Following the dinner, tables were arranged for progressive bridge. Miss Julia Bell and Lieutenant B. E. Shirey held high scores and each received an ever ready flash light.

Miss Mary Mitchell, Clearfield's prima donna, Miss Lois Fegley and Miss Della Anderson delighted the guests with their beautiful solos.

A delightful surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Koozer in Goshen in honor of Mr. Koozer's thirty-sixth birthday. A delicious supper was served at six-thirty which all certainly enjoyed.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Koozer and son Al, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Shaw and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Taylor and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Read and children, Mr. and Mrs. Curtin Taylor and children, Dorothy and Robert Steele. The out of town guests were Mrs. Sarah Steele, sister of Mrs. Koozer, of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Thomas Morris of Punxsutawney, sister of Mr. Koozer.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

By virtue of an order issuing out of the Orphans Court of the County of Clearfield, State of Penna., I, the undersigned Administrator of the estate of Margaret C. Henry, late of Sandy Township, county and state aforesaid, will expose to sale at public outcry at the Aberdeen Hotel in the Borough of Grampian, Clearfield County, Pa., on Saturday, the 15th day of September, 1917, at 2:00 o'clock, P. M. the following described real estate, lately the property of the said Margaret C. Henry, deceased:

All that piece of land with improvements thereon consisting of a frame two-story dwelling house and usual outbuildings, located in the Township of Penn. County of Clearfield, State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to wit:

On the North by lands now or formerly of Wm. M. Rowles; on the East by a Public Road; on the South by a Public Road; and on the West, by lands now or formerly of Lewis Kester, containing about eight (8) acres, be it more or less, and the same property which was conveyed unto Margaret C. Henry and James Henry, her husband, by entirety, by Deed from Wm. Hepburn and Wife of date of July 2nd, 1888, and recorder in the Office of the Register and Recorder for the County of Clearfield, in Deed Book Vol. 49, page 81; title to the same having vested in the said Margaret C. Henry, by survivorship.

TERMS: One-third of the price at which the said property is awarded, to be paid on date of the sale; the remainder to be paid when the sale has been duly confirmed by the Court and Deed therefor tendered to the purchaser.

German War Profit Tax Fifty Per Cent

Chicago, Aug. 23.—Germany's description of wealth was a success—as far as it went. This view was expressed here today by a competent authority—James W. Girard, former American ambassador to Germany.

Girard declared that Germany's methods were fifty per cent of war profits. He declared, however, that this met the full war budget. The heaviest burden was supported by war loan of 80 billion marks. The government didn't give a darn what the labor party thought with regard to the description of wealth. The German labor party has always been against war, he said. Germany's tax on incomes did not increase.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HEIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

CHARTER NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that application will be made in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County on Monday, September 24th, 1917 at 10 o'clock A. M. under the provisions of the Act of General Assembly entitled "An Act regulating the organization and incorporation of secret fraternal beneficial societies, orders or associations and protecting the rights of the members therein" approved April 6th, 1893 and its supplements, of an intended incorporation to be called THE LINCOLN SLAVONIC CLUB of Hawk Run, County of Clearfield and State of Pennsylvania, the charter and purpose of which is formed for the purpose of promoting social intercourse among the citizens of the United States of the Slavonic race and to educate them in the duties of good citizenship and encourage the Slavonic people to become American citizens, to speak, read and write the English language and promote a fraternal spirit among the members and to take care of the unfortunate among the said members by aiding and assisting them in time of sickness and for these purposes to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges conferred by said Act and the supplements thereto.

Organize Boys of State For War Work

Industrial production, will frequently be imperative.

It is intended, however, that the participation of the Reserve in such emergency work shall be so organized as not to retard the education of those boys who are attending school and not to prove a detriment to those who are regularly employed. Enrollment in the Reserve does not necessarily involve an immediate call to service. The motto of the Reserve is "I will be ready." Membership is open equally to employed and unemployed boys.

Boys who enroll are to be given instruction in the lines of work for which they seem to be best fitted and will be placed at such work. Every safeguard will be taken to prevent exploitation of this emergency labor and to protect the young workers against physical and moral injury.

Instructions have been issued to the District Superintendents for a vigorous recruiting effort in which posters provided by the Government and other forms of publicity will be utilized.

Pennsylvania with one-twelfth of all available boy workers in the country, is the first of the big industrial states in the east to undertake organization of a Boys' Working Reserve.

Detailed plans for the operation and control of the Reserve are being formulated and will be announced later.
